1. Date and Venue

The workshop will be held on 27-29 of November, 2019 on the premises of the UN House/UNDP 303 Baizakov str, Building 1 in Almaty, Kazakhstan. The workshop will enjoin UNDP, the Astana Civil Service Hub, the Government for Citizens Public Corporation, and UN DESA invited participants.

2. Travel

Participants should not purchase their own tickets, if funded by UN DESA. Funded participants will be provided with an economy class air ticket for travel to Almaty and return by the most economical and direct route. Participants will be contacted by the American Express, United Nations Office, which will issue the airline ticket in accordance with United Nations procedures.

The authorized date of arrival in Almaty is 26 November 2019 and the departure date from Almaty will be 30 November 2019. For participants wishing to depart on 29 November, before the meeting concludes, kindly inform your respective administrative focal point Ms. Flor Velazco-Juarez at Velazco-Juarez@un.org or Ms. Hye Kyung Choi at Choi9@un.org, as soon as possible. Once the travel authorization is received by the American Express, United Nations Office, participants will be contacted by a travel agent who will issue an itinerary based on the official travel dates, for the participant’s concurrence. For any changes to the proposed agenda regarding travel dates and/or travel class which will result in an increase in the authorized ticket cost, the difference will be borne and arranged by the participant directly with the American Express and the United Nations Office.

3. Visa Information

Participants are responsible for obtaining their own visa. It is important that participants contact the nearest Kazakhstan consulate to check the visa requirements for entering the country. Participants may wish to bring a copy of their official United Nations invitation letter to Kazakhstan consular officials which in most cases should suffice as a supporting documentation for the purpose of applying for a visa. Please note that in accordance with the UN rules and regulations for conferences, costs associated with visa procedures and fees, as well as airport taxes, are the responsibility of the participant and/or their institution and will not be covered by the UN.

A list of countries whose nationals are exempted from the entry visa to Kazakhstan can be found on the following website: http://mfa.gov.kz/files/5d957f294f469.pdf

Information about entry requirements of the Republic of Kazakhstan can be found at: https://caravanistan.com/visa/kazakhstan/#kazakhstan-visa-requirements

4. Entitlements

UN DESA funded participants will be provided with a Daily Subsistence Allowance (DSA) at the current established UN rate for Kazakhstan for the number of nights spent in Almaty for the workshop. The DSA is expected to cover accommodation, meals and other miscellaneous expenses. In addition, sponsored participants will be given terminal expenses. Please note that participants shall receive DSA for the actual meeting days attended. This includes 75 per cent of the DSA payment before departure through a bank transfer, with the remaining balance of 25 per cent after the meeting has concluded. Participants must provide a copy of boarding passes to facilitate processing of the balance of entitlements.

5. Attendance

Kindly note that all funded participants will be required to sign the attendance form on each day of the workshop.

6. Accommodation

Participants are responsible for booking and coordinating their own accommodation.

A list of hotels together with their contact details in Almaty is provided below. Participants should mention that they are attending the workshop when contacting the hotels, to access any discount rates that may apply. Please note that these prices are exclusive of VAT.

8. Transportation

Almaty International Airport is located 15 kilometers NorthEast of the city center. For traveling the city there are regular city buses, trolleybus, the Almaty Metro, a bicycle sharing system (Almaty-bike), Uber, as well as taxis.

The City of Almaty Sustainable Transport is a 5-year UNDP-GEF project launched in 2011, in an effort to assist the city in coping with transport-related emissions by promoting the sustainable transport options and implementing demonstration projects. The CAST project partnered its activities with the Almaty city administration and the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development. It also works closely with UITP, ITDP, GIZ and other international associations and projects to promote sustainable transport among policy makers and the general public.

The bus is the main type of public transport in the city which the majority of city residents use daily. Today 125 bus routes exist in Almaty, some of them link the city with the settlements located nearby. Besides, some of the buses (approx. 800 units) were transferred to the compressed natural gas.

The trolleybus network of Almaty city consists of 8 routes which connect the west, the east and the south of the city to railway stations "Almaty-1" and "Almaty-2". The fleet consists of partially low-floor trolley buses.

The metro of Almaty is the newest type of public transport in the city. The first stage with total length of 8.6 km was put in operation on 1 December 2011. It includes seven stations: Raimbek batyr, Zhbek zholy, Almaly, Abai, Baikonyr, Auezov drama theatre, and Alatau. On 18 April 2015 two more stations Sairan and Moscow were opened. The application, Metro of Almaty City, gives you quick access to the schedule of trains in an independent mode.

More information on Almaty city and its sustainable transportation, and various transport schedules may be found at Public Transportation of Almaty.
9. Welcome to Almaty!

Almaty is the largest city in Kazakhstan with a population of over 2 million, and is a major cultural and commercial center of Kazakhstan which is also the world’s ninth biggest country by size. The city is also part of the UNESCO creative cities network and is located in the mountainous area of southern Kazakhstan near the Large and Small Almatinka Rivers.
